Woodville Golf Club

ROUND 11

The mornings are getting darker as we get closer to the start of Winter but it was the pitter patter of rain drops on the roof early Sunday morning that can reduce the field that is the bigger concern. We travelled to the course in light drizzle but it had stopped by the time we reached the course. After a few holes of play it toyed with the idea it wanted to start again but it stopped and the umbrellas, like colourful spinnaker's on the golf course were stowed away for use on another day.

We had a field of 21 on Wednesday when I had to inform the Pro of our numbers and by Saturday evening it had grown to 25 then we had Noa turn up unannounced and one off the sheet, not coming so eventually we had 25 hit off, so the last few groups went off in three's.

We had a new player join us, James Yip, a fellow Chinaman, but it is not true that he is a clone of George Liu. James is heading off to China for a few weeks, maybe looking for George but as George says we all look the same. This news now elevates Sid Pelcz from "The new guy" status to maybe "hey you status" but we'll check with George Liu on his return, because he donned new guy status.

Now for golf news, the course provided good conditions for golf but both A & B Grade saving their pens and pencils by not using's them on two holes each, in the NTP's, so the last four in the ball comp run down were grateful of winning a ball each.

I'll mention the Winners on the Day as I forgot in the last newsletter for Kogarah but I corrected the newsletter before I submitted it for the "CHP RSL" Golf Sub Club website, so you can view the amended newsletter there. The Stableford winners 1st Sifa Nacagelivu 42 pts, 2nd Peter Deady 41 pts, 3rd Samy Ratnam 39 pts 4th Les Frost in a c/b 36 pts, 5th John Parsell also on 36pts. Scratch winner in c/b Keith Johnson 21 points from John Kottaridis also 21pts. Sifa Nacagelivu losses 3 shots, Peter Deady 2.5 shots and Samy Ratnam 1.5 shots for their efforts above the course rating of 36pts around Woodville G.C.

Sifa Nacagelivu now leads the Stableford Point Score race 351pts from 2nd placed Peter Deady and Ron Williamson 304 pts each, 4th Troy Wilks 303pts & 5th Bill Fonseca 302pts. Once again Sifa hasn't missed a game for the past 3 years so has got at least 1 game on the rest of the field with Epi Manu the only other 100% attendee for the 2015 season.

Joanne Kinkead was a very happy golfer on the 8th, chipping in from about 80metres for a par 4 a 4 and parred the 11 for a 3 a 4 but alas there was no NTP on the 11th. John Parsell was the only one to put a ball on the NTP 5th and it was ironic that the next hole's signage was John's Hole and I suggested that, that hole's signage should of been reversed to honour John's feat, and his alone.
