Chatswood Golf Club

ROUND 14

The day didn't start off all that well, when George Liu went to the Proshop and was told we didn't have a booking and there were no carts available. So George said I'll let the big fella sort it out ! I arrive and head to the Proshop to sort things out with steam coming out of my ears. Somewhere between picking up the 24 cards on the Monday prior to our game and verifying our booking of 24, reduce the booking to 22 and checking we had the 3 carts. Everything was all good to go, so Joanne and myself settled back for a coffee in the Club House on Monday afternoon.

I will be ringing and find out what's going on at Chatswood G.C. but we hit off the 10th and had 3 carts which seemingly weren't there 15 minutes earlier, maybe I'm a scary proposition when riled up.

In the end, there were only 16 of us turned up to hit off anyway, with more than half of our golf club membership unavailable with 7 pulling out in the last two days or later. The sunshine on your back put pay to any- one who was worried about the weather, with most discarding at least one layer of clothing fairly earlier in the morning

Now my whinge is out of the road, a few interesting facts about the game today. Not one person got through the day without a wipe and there were 50 wipes recorded on the cards. There was some great golf played , with 6 birdie and 50 pars in between recording 50 wipes.

George Liu chipped in today for a birdie on the 4th from a very awkward position in a grassy hollow or was that a grassy nowel, then the next couple of holes he parred seeing the hole as big as wheelbarrow, that was until the wheels fell off again

Laurie McMartin hit a perfect shot onto the Rock Face 6th hole and was tracking for a hole in one, but settled for a 2/4. Laurie wanted to know where the NTP marker was on that hole My shot off the 6th tee hit a big tree, my next shot hit the rock face and cannoned back down the hill, with my next wedge shot landed off the green but a shot from the fringe found the hole for a 4/2.

Joanne Kinkead won, is that the right word, the Bradman with 28 S/B points which would normally be mid field. I didn't see much of the other groups, as a group of members went to the 1st tee and insisted they hit off next so split our four groups, I said to them that they couldn't win any of our NTP's etc.

Winners today were 1st Joe Oriti 39points, 2nd Bill Fonseca 37 pts, 3rd Laurie McMartin 35 pts ,4th John Kottaridis 34 pts,5th Troy Wilks 33pts. Scratch winner John Kottaridis 23 points
