ROUND 16

Round 2, CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP, HANDICAP & PUTTING CHAMPIONSHIP

25 Players met, very early on the Lansvale site, and as we drove to the course we watched the fluctuating price of petrol mainly $163.9 per litre to the Hill Mobil prices of $118.9, reminding us to fill up on the way home. The roads were littered with tree branches and even large limbs, so we were going to battle the elements all day with the gusts of wind, even rocking Joe Oriti off his feet, so we had little Denis Carruthers on watch, as we didn't want him lifted up like the plastic bag caught high up in the trees. We all had the 2nd layer, maybe 3rd or 4th layer of clothing on as we hit off down the 10th fairway, trying to avoid the dam as the wind swept towards it taking any wayward balls that way.

The course is centred around the Chipping Norton Lakes Area so has water, water and water on a great majority of the 18 holes, so you had plenty of opportunities to find the watery grave of a Srixon, Callaway or Bridgestone golf ball. The "Murphy's Laws of Golf" only allows for a good ball to be lost, where as a crappy old ball, where you don't care if you lose it or not, seems to avoid the water with canny degrees of luck. Mark McKenzie did his best to keep the golf ball manufacturers in business with Mark running out of fingers when counting his numbers of balls in the drink. Mark had an equipment failure out on the course, when a strut on his buggy broke when manoeuvring through a water hazard trench, bit like one of his buses falling into the sink hole in the road at Caringbah during the week.

This week's game had a run-away winner with Bill Fonseca shot 100 nett 66 pts to beat Keith Johnson and Michael Doan by nett 8 pts, so with the news that he is a big burglar, Bill is going to leave the country after Bexley but the Handicapper will catch up with him. Roger Harriman has been playing some excellent golf of late, and after the swab was taken for form reversal, it is that he just revels on the better longer courses. The 6th hole NTP over the water, had no one get a ball, but Joe Oriti had to be considered unlucky as he landed on the green but his shot ran through the green. Most took the safer route by hitting to the side of the green then hit on, better than hitting straight into the dam

Chris Giousmidis and Migual Vieira competed their 5 games, got their shirts and a handful of goodies. The Footy tips competition has come to an end and after 25 rounds, concluded in a Tie with Ron Williamson and John Kottaridis declared equal winners. Lucky numbers winners were Gary Pleasance and Denis Carruthers and both donated their winnings back into the kitty.

The Event of the Day winners were 1st Bill Fonseca 100 strokes, nett 66 pts, 2nd Keith Johnson 90 strokes nett 74 pts in c/b, 3rd Micheal Doan 99 strokes, also nett 74 pts, 4th Roger Harriman 96 strokes, nett 76 pts, 5th Sid Pelcz 96 strokes, nett 78 pts
