Georges River Golf Club

Round 4

When I arrived and turning into Henry Lawson Drive, and firstly pass the house on the corner that appears to rotate, as an optical allusion because of the isometric design to a focal point. It always amaze me, then I come to the Georges River Golf Course which was shrouded in fog, admittedly I was one of the first of the 22 CHP RSL Golfers to arrive and as usual Peter Deady the last to arrive , but at least he had his clubs with him. All amazing phenomenon's of nature

George and myself had to alter the groups as a few requested that they needed to leave early, but the Matchplay groups take precedent but that changed after the pro asked us to hit off 5 minutes early, which was a problem, as some of the matchplay players hadn't even arrived, so I need to remind you that golf etiquette is to arrive at the tee, not the carpark, at least 15 minutes before our hit off time. If you request an earlier hit off time, so you can leave early, please do so, as all of us would like be in the first groups occasionally, not always bringing up the rear.

The matchplay groups had the top half of the draw decided late with Samy Ratnam coming back after being well behind to win over Joe Oriti 1 up, & in the Battle between the Little Aussie Battler and the Greek returning to tee up again on the 18th with George Liu winning over John Kottaridis on the 19th. John K held a lead of +4 at one stage and missed putts on the 16th and 17th for George to level up the match before going on to win. The next match will be between George Liu and Samy Ratnam

The matchplay groups in the bottom half of the draw were decided very early with Noa Palu winning at the 14th, 5 /4 over John Mandarinini and Greg Parsell also on the 14th, 6 /4 over Craig Tomison with Craig only winning 3 holes . Noa had to give John Mandarinini a shot on 17 holes in his match but in the next match against Greg Parsell, Noa will have to give Greg a shot on 19 holes, that is one shot on each hole with Noa conceding two shots on the Par 4, 8th hole at Woodville G.C.

Peter Deady had one of those days where everything he tried fell into place, especially after his Bradman that came with his Massey Park G.C. game , but will have to now deal with losing 3 ½ pts from his handicap, Samy loses 1 ½ pts, and Bill loses 1 pts after his 2nd podium in two games

Today's Stableford winners were 1st Peter Deady on 43 points , 2nd Samy Ratnam 39 pts, 3rd Bill Fonseca 38 pts, 4th Greg Parsell 36 pts in a three way c/b, 5th Noa Palu 36 pts, 6th Robert Rubbo also 36pts Today's Scratch Winner was Noa Palu 81 strokes, 9 over par, 27 s/b points

Last week we had a "Mystery Five Holes" at Massey Park G.C. drawn from a hat after the game , which turned into a "Mystery Six" when there were too many in a count-back & the declared winners & not winning any vouchers were 1st, & taking the white wine was Mal Tyler and 2nd taking home the red plonk was Glenn Watson . Sorry, I forgot to report the results in last week's newsletter.
