

29 MARCH 2015

Bardwell Valley Golf Club

ROUND 6

The week started with 29 names on the playing list and when Pat Towns joined us on the Sunday morning we potentially having 30 to hit off at Bardwell Valley Golf Course. One by one by text and phone calls, we had players dropping like flies and along with a few AWOL, we only had 22 hit off on a glorious day for golf, a real Goldie-locks day , " just right"!!!

Our Captain George Liu, had his Grand-daughter playing a grand-final in water polo at Ryde Pool at 11.15am, so a game of golf, even in the first group wasn't going to work and be at the pool.

We re-organised the tee groups at least 5 times during the week, so sorry no email to indicate which group you would be slotted into, for hitting off. By the time we had all hit off, I had a mitt full of cards to discard, even after I printing up a new tee group sheet at 12.15am in the wee hours of Saturday night/Sunday Morning.

We had the course to ourselves in the morning except for the Rockdale RSL group hitting off the 9th, and the only thing we had to worry about was the animal kingdom, were we had a flock of birds attacking a young bird on the 6th, We had to rescue it and hide it in the long grass so the other birds would stop attacking it. We then had to "scare the crows" as one pesky crow liked the look of a few of our golf balls on the 17th fairway, and would swoop down and follow the ball in flight.

Sid "the new guy" Pelcz completed his third card and will have a handicap next game with us, and also won a NTP today on the 9th, take your pick if it was A or C Grade. Just ask David DeMarchi which grade pin, Sid should of recorded his name.

Epi and Christian Manu having completed their fifth games were given their "Celery" CHP RSL Golf shirts in the carpark and the combination of David DeMarchi / John Mandarin were given the dozen balls owed from past games.

Next game at Beverley Park G.C is the resumption of the Matchplay Semi-finals with Joe Belinha v/s Jim Urquhart in match #1 and John Kottaridis v/s Sifa Nacagilevu in match #2.

Winners today were 1st Ron Williamson 42 points, 2nd Sifa Nacagelivu 38 s/b points in c/b over , 3rd Craig Tomison also 38 pts, 4th David DeMarchi 37pts, 5th Robert McDougall 35 c/b , 6th Samy Ratnam also 35 points Scratch winner Keith Johnson 23 points.
