It's lights, camera, action ... for kids

CHILDREN can explore the art of filmmaking in a comprehensive three-day workshop from January 21-23 as part of Kids in the Park activities at Sydney Olympic Park.

In the workshop youngsters will have opportunities to enhance their skills in scriptwriting, filming and editing.

Brainstorm a story and pre-plan your production, including locations, costumes, hair and make-up and rehearsals.

Day two is dedicated to shooting film footage.

On day three, participants edit the moving images and design a soundtrack for the film.

There is a wide range of Kids in The Park holiday activities. For details including cost and bookings, email Cinewest or call 0402 707 010.

Have your say on bowling club plans

CANTERBURY Hurlstone Park RSL Club will host a series of Have Your Say Days over three days next month so residents are kept informed about plans for the old Camperdown Bowling Club in Mallett St. A spokesman for Camperdown Project Pty Ltd, the group overseeing the project, said once they had heard community concerns they would work with architects to incorporate viable suggestions. Nine sessions have been scheduled from Wednesday, February 4, to Friday, February 6 - at 11am, 3pm and 6pm - at Canterbury Hurlstone Park RSL, Canterbury Rd and Crinan St corner. RSVP@camperdownproject.info. Get an e-newsletter at camperdownproject.info.

WAS THERE TO HELP ME."

Tim's life was turned upside down. But after we talked through the legal process from beginning to end, he knew that was one less thing he had to worry about. If something's happened to you, we'll listen, let you know where you stand and guide you every step of the way. And if there's no win, there's no fee.*
